

"It's difficult to express the amount of gratitude I feel for the Y community. My son is thriving with the support of teachers he's had at the Y since he was three months old. Thank you for supporting me and my son through a difficult time. Being able to stay in daycare, where he feels most comfortable, is allowing him to learn and grow. Thank you so much!"

- a scholarship recipient

