

"The Y is a truly supportive community that was there for me to provide necessary enrichment for my child with special needs. The kindness was unbelievable.

The Y supports strong bodies, minds and spirits of all its members and understands the importance of lifting each other up in times of need. I'm forever grateful to all who contribute to the Y's annual campaign. Please do what you can to support this tremendous community."

- Hockomock Area YMCA member

